PARTICIPANTS & AWARDS:

This is the annual show hosted by the Virginia Pigeon and Dove Association (VPDA) and open to the many specialty clubs & hobbyists located near the east coast. We hope you all enjoy this event and come back. We also enjoy your feedback. Many of the members of the VPDA are active members of specialty clubs throughout the country. They have the choice of showing with their specialty club or showing with the VPDA open. VPDA members are charged only $2.00 per entry. VPDA members showing with and sending their entries to their Specialty Club will pay the entry fee of that specialty club. Some Specialty clubs will have greater entry fees to help off-set special awards. The VPDA does not set entry fees for specialty clubs.

VPDA and open classes consisting at least 10 birds from 2 different breeders will receive an award. The VPDA will also provide an award to the Champion of the Show and Reserve Champion judged after all classes of birds are shown and judged. Show Champion, Reserve Champion and 2nd Reserve Champion will also be awarded for best Junior after open and VPDA breed judging.

LOCATION:

The Show Hall is located at the Meadow Event Park, home of the State Fair of Virginia. It is North of Richmond in Caroline County. The best way to get there is take I-95 and get off on EXIT 98.
